Most suicides because by loneliness

EVEN MILLIONS OF DOLLARS WON'T HELP IF SOMEONE FEELS LONELY
SOME SAY THAT BILLIONS CAN HELP, BUT IT IS NOT FOR SURE

So, people who do not have mins and bins of $, just use dating apps, which provide users with their own formula of successful online dating app: One old and boring local searching mode + lot of photoshop + lot of fake accounts + thousand unanswered chats + we don't care what users, who make us billionaires, gonna do after matchmaking + people lost time and money = people used to it
